Note : la vidéo est bilingue (anglais et arabe)

[Texte à l'écran : In this video production is a presentation of some recorded scenes documenting the course of the program to train the sahwat vetted by America in Jordan under the wings of the Crusader coalition forces. This is a small portion of what the sahwat left behind to become ghanimah in the hands of the Khilafah's soldiers after they failed to advance on the city of Albu Kamal and their soldiers were either killed or driven out. And to Allah belongs all praise and favor.]

Narrator: A decade has passed in which America swallowed the bitterness of the conflict on the soil of Iraq, and shamelessly enjoyed repeating the experiment of the Sahwat of Iraq in Sham. And in an endeavor to distance itself from direct combat on the ground, it directed its agents in the region to prepare the military camps to receive the newcomers.

Jordan came out ahead, thinking that it had strength and believing itself to be safe so that it could plot as it wished against the believing slaves of Allah. Its land today serves as a launch pad and a pen for the Crusader coalition's bombers which kill Muslims and destroy homes on top of their inhabitants in the land of the Khalifah. And this tremendous plot had no boundary, for they are the standard-bearers for recruiting the Sahwat of apostasy and treachery in the desert region of Sham.

The apostate, Muhannad Ahmad at-Talla' [as the Americans record his statement]: In the Name of Allah, the Gracious, the Merciful. All praise is due to Allah, the Lord of the Universe, who gives honor to His slaves...

One of the Americans that record his statement: You can start over.

Narrator: American minds conceived the idea to create a subordinate entity near the imaginary border with Jordan, giving it another name – The New Syrian Army – after having trained its members and provided them with what was needed of weapons, equipment, and vehicles, in addition to air cover for support and reinforcement, all in the hope of capturing parts of the land of the Khilafah in an effort to patch the tear that was spreading towards them. But how could it possibly achieve that...

Narrator: In a scene which few get to witness despite its occurrence in different forms and in various eras, there appears before us the slave, and with him his American master who is there to teach him which phrases are most beloved to the common people so that he can win their love.

The “slave” [as he practices his speech]: We want to make Daesh busy on the battlefronts so that it becomes possible for the rest of the Free Syrian Army factions to strike them.

The “American master” [to his “slave”, as he gives him feedback]: Hand movements are no problem... but moving your legs... just keep them still like this. Like this. Okay? You don't need to go fast. It isn't a problem. We have time. Daesh are very good. Why? There is a link between the message and their activity. If there's a message, there is always activity accompanying the message, and if there's activity, there's a message accompanying the activity. You are able to cooperate with the international coalition. The best thing to say is “We are the international coalition's partners in Syria.”

The “slave”: That's perfect.

The “American master”: You are a partner.

[Texte à l'écran : The apostate sahwat are the Crusaders' partners in fighting the Muslims.]

The “American master”: This will be received positively by the public in the international community. These aren't just normal relations. You are a partner.

[La répétition est terminée. Nous assistons au résultat final de la vidéo pour laquelle “l'American master” et le “slave” répétaient.]

The “American master” [as the interviewer behind the camera]: So, the first question: Who are the New Syrian Army?

The “slave” [as the interviewee in front of the camera]: The New Syrian Army...

[La vidéo passe en mode accéléré jusqu'à la fin de la vidéo.]

The “American master” [as the video closes]: Excellent.

Narrator: The New Syrian Army. A faction that America prepared and trained after subjecting its members to a detailed vetting process, and this took place in the land of Jordan.

[On nous présente un extrait audio dans lequel on peut entendre Kha'zal as-Sarhan]

Kha'zal as-Sarhan: Brothers, this seminar is mandatory, and it includes an assessment. They need to know who you worked with and how you came, and just as they did with us and with those who came before us they're going to assess you.

/[Fin de l'extrait audio]

Narrator: The remaining mercenaries of the sahwat of the eastern region are considered its main component. It is a faction affiliated with the Free Syrian Army, which feeds on the crumbs it is tossed by the nations of the Crusader coalition. The one appointed as the leader of this failed faction is the head of apostasy and treachery, Khaz'al as-Sarhan, who had become known for theft and for all manner of vices. He became notorious for previously being an agent for the Nusayri regime in Dayr az-Zawr.

[Retour à un extrait audio de Kha'zal as-Sarhan]

Kha'zal as-Sarhan: The important thing, Abu Ibrahim, is that you go and let them know about this and tell them not to cause problems for us. Tell them “This is a shame on you”, and tell them, “I’ll give you more information.”. Say that to them... Tell them “If the people of Albu Kamal don’t rise up with you, even if your Lord comes, He won’t be able to help you, because the day Albu Kamal fell, all of you will fell with it”

/[Fin de l'extrait audio]

Narrator: The goal of this faction is to take control of areas which the Khalifah state governs with Allah’s Shari’ah, replacing it with the anarchy of manmade laws and the waste from their ideas, consisting of filthy democracy, so that the law of the jungle rules the people of Islam therein. They conducted a number of fake battles in the desert and claimed they had taken control of Islamic State locations, but the falsehood of their claims quickly became apparent.

[Texte à l’écran : Crusader coalition airstrike on the city of Albu Kamal.]

Narrator: After being sent forth by America, these apostate mercenaries, in all their lowness, set out to use their spies in the city of Albu Kamal to send targets to the Crusader coalition to have them bombed, without any care for the sanctity of the Muslims’ blood.

[Retour à un extrait audio dans lequel on peut entendre Kha'zal as-Sarhan s'entretenir avec un espion dont on ne connaît pas l'identité]

Kha'zal as-Sarhan: Brother, with regards to the plane, when it arrives, and when it goes and strikes let me know quickly.

Spy: Right now, Daesh is shooting at the planes and there’s more than one plane in the air. I hope they locate the anti-aircraft guns and blow them up. O Allah, guide their strikes against Daesh.

Kha'zal as-Sarhan: By Allah, the plane kept flying for 4 hours and flew over all the checkpoints. It flew over them one-by-one and didn’t find anyone. As you’re walking, making it look like you’re talking on the phone, then just press the button and it’ll determine the location

Spy: I’ll send someone to try and find him, and then you hit him, brother. Why is it a problem to risk some civilians? It’s not a problem. Because we need to cleanse the region of Albu Kamal in 24 hours, every place where they are, including buildings and masajid.

Kha'zal as-Sarhan: With regards to Albu Kamal, it’s been bombed, Mayadin has been bombed, Shuhayl has been bombed, Shu’aytat has been bombed and the planes are still flying and striking. And of course, they’re all targets that were already known to us.

Spy: The airstrike that you're going to carry out on this office is going to risk people's lives, but just hit it. This is war. Both the evil and the innocent die. Let some civilians die. Let 10 or 15 civilians die. Like this house that they're staying in the people. It's true, there are shops below that belong to the people. Just, hit all of them. Let them go to Hell.

/[Fin de l'extrait audio]

Narrator: Rather, on top of their disdain for those lives, they engaged in fear-mongering and the spreading of false rumors among the people...

[Extrait audio dans lequel on peut entendre Kha'zal as-Sarhan s'entretenir avec un espion dont on ne connaît pas l'identité]

Kha'zal as-Sarhan: Brother, I want you to spread a rumor that the Daesh leaders want to flee. It's very, very, very important that you spread this rumor on the streets. [...] ¹ Find me some good youth we can recruit. Right now, our work is only media-related. I don't want anything other than media. Nothing at all. We don't want anything military. All our work right now is media-related.

Spy: About the rumor, most of the people are talking about it that their members are fleeing from here to Iraq and that most of them were killed and buried there. And now, a new rumor is spreading that they want to take a lot of youth from here and that everyone needs to be careful...

/[Fin de l'extrait audio]

[Texte à l'écran : From the lens of the Apostates.]

Apostate: The city of Albu Kamal from the desert. By Allah's permission, we are coming, O Daesh. We are coming, by Allah's permission. The noble commander, Lieutenant Colonel Muhannad at-Talla'.

Narrator: And just as brainless livestock are led to their deaths using blades of grass, and in a manner resembling falsehood when it becomes inflated with arrogance, these murtaddin embarked in arrogance and to be seed with what they possessed of vehicles, weapons, and Crusader air cover, placing their trust in their "god", America, and hoping that it grants them victory, as they headed towards the city of Albu Kamal to capture it.

[Texte à l'écran : Their defeat upon being received by the mujahidin.]

[Images de la bataille d'Albu Kamal du côté de la Sahwat]

Unkown Sahwat soldier, [behind the camera]: Are you shot? Go. Retreat, retreat, retreat. All fighters retreat.

Narrator: So Allah humiliated them, made their plot the means for their slaughter, and rubbed the nose of their transgression on the walls of the city, and their fighters were either killed, taken prisoner, or turned fugitive, becoming a lesson and example for the rest, and all praise is due to Allah...

[Nasheed, translated with subtitles: And do not be like those who came forth from their homes insolently and to be seen by people and avert [them] from the way of Allah. And Allah is encompassing of what they do. And [remember] when Satan made their deeds pleasing to them and said, “No one can overcome you today from among the people, and indeed, I am your protector.” But when the two armies sighted each other, he turned on his heels and said, “Indeed, I am disassociated from you. Indeed, I see what you do not see; indeed I fear Allah. And Allah is severe in penalty”... and leaving behind what they came with of vehicles, weapons, and equipment to become easy ghanimah in the hands of the Khalifah’s soldiers, and all favor and grace belongs to Allah...]

[Texte à l’écran : Some of the ghanimah which Allah blessed His mujahid slaves.]

Narrator: So mobilize your forces, O Crusaders. Mobilize your forces, roar with thunder, threaten whom you want, plot, arm your troops, prepare yourselves, strike, kill, and destroy us. This will not avail you. You will be defeated. This will not avail you, for our Lord, the Mighty, the Prevailing has promised us with our victory and your defeat. Send arms and equipment to your agents and dogs. Prepare them with the most modern equipment. Send them very much, for it will end up as war booty in our hands by Allah’s permission. You will spend it, then it will be a source of regret for you, then you will be defeated. Look at your armored vehicles, machinery, weaponry, and equipment. It is in our hands. Allah granted it to us. We fight you with it. So die in your rage.

Narrator: “Indeed, those who disbelieve spend their wealth to avert [people] from the way of Allah. So they will spend it; then it will be for them a [source of] regret; then they will be overcome. And those who have disbelieved – unto Hell they will be gathered” (Al-Anfal 36).

Narrator: Indeed, what the Crusader coalition nations are undertaking, including mobilizing the corrupt apostates of Ahlus-Sunnah and the Rafidah (may Allah disfigure them) and hurling them into the furnace of hopeless battles with the muwahhid, mujahid slaves of Allah in Iraq and Sham, will only serve to increase the soldiers of the Khilafahin their faith – by Allah’s power and strength – in their faith, their submission, their attestation of Allah’s promise to them, and their steadfastness upon the covenant, which they took upon themselves, to support His religion and raise high His word. So it will be but one of the two good outcomes – wither victory of shahadah.

Narrator: “Say ‘Do you await for us except one of the two best things while we await for you that Allah will afflict you with punishment from Himself or at our hands? So wait; indeed we, along with you, are waiting’”

Narrator: O soldier afflicted by fitnah, be careful whom you take your religion from, and repent to your Lord so that perhaps He may have mercy on you and guide you. Furthermore, have you not taken a lesson, O factions and sahwat? Have you not taken a lesson from your predecessors’ fight against the Islamic State then years ago? Where are the factions that fought the Islamic State? Where are the sahwat? What will you gain from fighting the Islamic State? Does one of you desire to dig his grave with his own hands, or wish to have his head cut off, or his house demolished? What will you gain from fighting the Islamic State, O factions? Do you think that you will be able to eradicate it? Do you think that you are stronger in might than the sahwat of Iraq backed by America and its allies? Will you not take a lesson from the factions of Sham and their sahwat? Stop your war against the Islamic State, O factions everywhere, and repent to your Lord. Do not stand between us and the Jews, the Crusaders, and the Tawaghit. As for he who insists on fighting us, let him not wail thereafter, or slap himself in grief, nor blame anyone but himself.

Homme 1: These children who wanted to enter this land with tanks and American warplanes – which come here to try to hand this land over to them – thinking that the people of this land want to replace the Shari’ah of Allah and His rule with what they come with of democracy and secularism, by Allah they have failed and lost, for the people of this land – the subjects of Amirul-Mu’minin – will not be pleased with being ruled by anything other than Allah’s Shari’ah. By Allah, there isn’t a single man with an atom’s weight of iman who will accept the deviant Syrian-American forces entering his land. We did not come here except to reinforce our brothers, to fight alongside them, and to head out with them to defeat these disbelieving apostates. We are prepared to fight alongside them at any moment they desire, and to offer our blood and our lives for the sake of Allah in order to establish the rule of Allah’s Shari’ah in this land.

[Texte à l’écran : The subjects of the Khilafah state – may Allah honor it – respond to the call.]

Homme 1: And here I declare that I was previously from among the common Muslims, and now I am declaring my bay’ah to Amirul Mi’minin Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi, pledging to obey him both in ease and in hardship.

Homme 2 : You thought that you would enter this city. By Allah, you will not enter it except over our dead bodies and our limbs. We are the subjects of Amirul-Mu’minin. We want the rule of Allah’s Sharia’ah, we do not want America’s democracy. You came with your weapons and equipment, and we came with our conviction in Allah. By Allah, you will not enter this city except over our limbs. We are the subjects of Amirul-Mu’minin. We reinforce our brothers in the Islamic State and we say to them: You are not fighting alone. We are fighting for the cause of Allah, to raise high the word of Allah, and to defeat this small group that seeks help from American and Zion, while we seek help from Allah.

Narrator: So rally around the mujahidin, O sunnis of Sham, and stop your sons from joining the army and the sahwah councils, for what good is there in an army built by the Crusaders which they then train on the laps of the tawaghit. So prevent your sons, and whoever of them refuses to listen, let him not blame anyone but himself if there comes to him a day in which he digs his grave with his own hands, his head is cut off, and his house is demolished. And the blessed one is he who learns from the lessons of others. To Allah belongs honor, and to His Messenger, and to the believers. And the final outcome will be in favor of the righteous.
